2. Sacred Sikh Sites in Pakistan

Panja Sahib (Hasan Abdal)

One of the most revered Sikh shrines, Panja Sahib houses the sacred rock imprinted with Guru Nanak's handprint. Devotees believe that touching this relic brings spiritual blessings.

Kartarpur Sahib (Narowal)

This is where Guru Nanak spent his final years, teaching equality and devotion. The Kartarpur Corridor, opened in 2019, allows Indian pilgrims to visit this holy site without a visa.

Nankana Sahib (Janam Asthan)

The birthplace of Guru Nanak, this site is home to Gurdwara Janam Asthan, marking the exact spot of his birth. It is a center of Sikh heritage and spirituality.

3. Cultural & Safety Tips

- Respect Local Customs: Always cover your head at Gurdwaras and follow Sikh traditions.
 - Dress Modestly: Traditional attire is recommended for visiting religious sites.
 - Stay Safe: Travel with a group, book through our trusted services, and follow local regulations.
 - Emergency Contacts: Keep a list of important contacts, including our tour guides and local authorities.
